ELLIE GONSALVES WEARS THREE COUTURE DRESSES AT DESTINATION WEDDING ON THE GOLD COAST

Ellie Gonsalves and Ross Scutt's wedding was a dreamy Mediterranean-inspired celebration of their 14-year love story. The couple honored Ellie's name engraved on Ellie's wedding band and heartfelt speeches centered around their closest friends. The intimate ceremony and dinner were the nearest and dearest on a magical Monday night. Ellie stunned in three breathtaking couture dresses, each one more stunning than the last. Ellie was the day fairy tale bride.

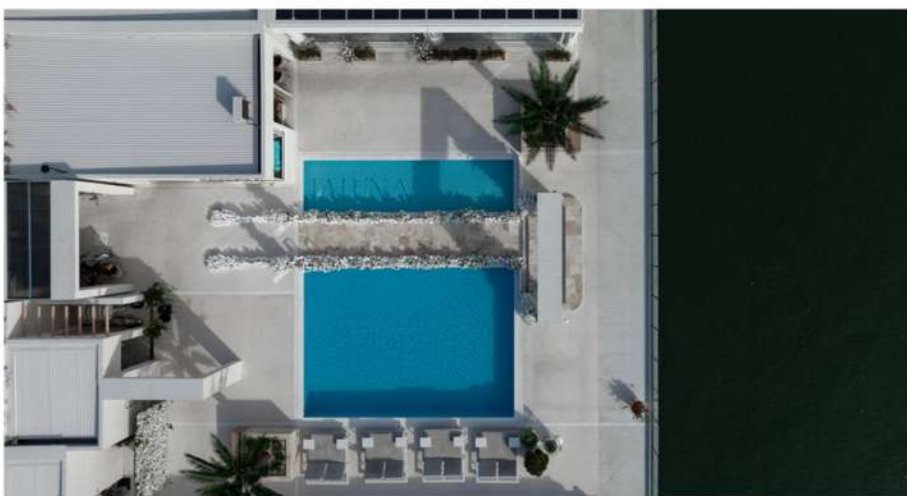

AS SEEN ON VOGUE

Ellie, an actress and model, and Ross, an entrepreneur, began their two-day wedding with a private ceremony, sans bridal party and guests, in their hometown on the Gold Coast. The couple had originally planned to elope overseas, but a visit to La Luna, a floating beach club by the city's main strip, changed their minds. "It's a beautiful Mediterranean-inspired venue with an incredible view of the marina," says Ellie. Walking down the aisle over the pool at La Luna, Ellie tells us, "I felt like I was walking on water."

AS SEEN ON WEDDED WONDERLAND

"Alysia Bridger, the mastermind behind the couple's big day, brought their vision to life with meticulous attention to detail. The picturesque La Luna, a floating beach club with a breathtaking view of the marina, served as the idyllic setting for the ceremony. Working with Ross and Ellie to plan their two-day wedding has been an absolute dream. They are such an incredibly gorgeous couple who I just adore and we brought together the most amazing team to create the Wedding of their dreams. They were looking initially to be married overseas but when we met on-site at the stunning new venue La Luna Beach Club, at Main Beach in Queensland, Ellie and Ross fell in love with La Luna at first sight, and then all the magic happened from there."
